

Earn stars by attending classes and you will receive recognition.

1 Star: After completion of 5 classes you will receive recognition at a Squadron CC Call.

2 Star: After completion of 10 classes you will receive recognition at the Group level.

3 Star: After completion of 15 classes you will receive recognition at a Wing staff meeting.

Getting Recognition. The responsibility for receiving recognition is on the member. The steps below explain the process.

1. Print off your LP Class Transcript.
2. Upon class completion, request the facilitator's signature on the transcript with the information about the class you attended.
3. Once all class requirements are met, email the transcript to corey.breingan@us.af.mil for validation.
4. Certificate of completion for respective level will be forwarded to the appropriate presentation authorities.

Leadership and learning are indispensable to each other.

- John F. Kennedy

For additional information or questions about Leadership Pathways, please visit <http://www.tyndall.af.mil/About/SOAR.aspx> or call the Community Support Coordinator at 850.283.8387

Leadership Pathways presents you with a variety of tools to prepare you for mentoring, supervising, and leading. Arm yourself with knowledge on leadership, fitness, finances, relationships, communication, parenting, and more while enhancing your personal and professional development. These classes are open to all Airmen (Active Duty, Air National Guard, Air Force Reserve, and civilians) and family members.

A better partner, parent, friend, mentor, leader...a better you.

Airmen and their families will now receive Leadership Pathways (LP) credit for attending the courses offered through base and are recognized at the squadron, group and wing level for their accomplishments.

The goal of LP is to increase learning about life circumstances, leadership and resilience to help others as well as yourself. Seeking knowledge is powerful and as leaders, we can become better equipped with the knowledge to help each other and to lead others. Our Airmen, Air Force civilians and family members are placed in positions as leaders, supervisors, teachers and mentors. The Leadership Pathways classes provides the most recent information, so that you may help others in this capacity or help yourself.

LP courses will help create communities at Tyndall AFB that give Airmen and their families a sense of belonging to the Air Force community, in which they live, work and play. You will meet others with similar interests and can take a multitude of classes for your own personal and professional development.

The course catalog is posted on <http://www.tyndall.af.mil/About/Community-Action-Team/>

The catalog contains the class descriptions and point of contact for more information on the specific course. Attend great classes such as...

- Four Lenses
- Dads: The Basics
- Anger Management
- Healthy Eating 101
- Extreme Couponing
- Car Buying
- Sleep Better!
- Boots to Business

Browse the catalog of classes and sign up on the Appointments Plus page to attend.

Attend the class and have the facilitator sign your class transcript form (located on the Leadership Pathways website.)

Turn in the form to receive recognition and then find more classes to enjoy!

Getting Started is easy!

1. Go to the Tyndall Leadership Pathways page at <https://booknow.appointment-plus.com/y8h91rr0/>
2. Once on the Appointments Plus registration site, first time users will need to create an account. Returning users can simply log in.
3. After you have logged in, click on the "select class" drop down box and all class titles will appear. Select your class.
4. The class description, along with the dates, available seats, and point of contact will appear. Select the date in which you would like to attend.
5. Finalize the appointment and select how you wish to be reminded. You will automatically receive an email, but you can choose the text option as well.
6. Attend your class, enjoy, learn, repeat.

ADDED BENEFIT... use classes or Certificates of Achievement for personal or professional development bullets on award packages, EPRs, OPRs, etc.